

FRESHMAN SEMINARS ABROAD 2016-17

Travel abroad over winter break or spring break with your on-campus semester class

Reasons to go abroad your first year

- A great way to make friends
- Fulfill one or more liberal education requirements
- Gain familiarity with the learning abroad process
- Get to know a professor and have them get to know you
- Do something meaningful over break
- Travel with people your own age
- The Learning Abroad Center organizes the programs
- You can apply for Learning Abroad Center scholarships and use financial aid
- See the course content come to life by visiting the sites you are learning about during the semester

How to sign up

1. Apply through the Learning Abroad Center:
UMabroad.umn.edu
2. Once accepted, register for the course through MyU Portal
3. Submit confirmation materials to the Learning Abroad Center
4. Winter break deadline: October 1, 2016
5. Spring break deadline: December 2, 2016

Students take a Freshman Seminar during spring semester on campus and go abroad over winter or spring break with their professor and classmates. Financial aid and Learning Abroad Center scholarships apply.
